PROPOSED SUBSTITUTE ORDINANCE AMENDMENT

BE IT ORDAINED, by the Cook County Board of Commissioners that Chapter 74 Taxation, is hereby amended and Sec. 74-70 of the Cook County Code is hereby added as follows:

Sec. 74-70. Class 8a Designation / Assessment Class

Class 8a. Real estate that is used primarily for commercial purposes as an auto dealership, wherein the business and commerce of selling and leasing new automobiles is an ongoing commercial enterprise, which real estate would qualify for a class 8 designation pursuant to Sec. 74-62 thru Sec. 74-64, except for the fact that the qualifying use of the property prior to application for the incentive does not comply with the definition of abandoned property provided for in Sec.74-62(b), can receive a designation as a class 8a property so long as the applicant can show that it has complied with all of the requirements necessary to receive a class 8 designation per Sec. 74-62 thru Sec. 74-64, except for meeting the definition of abandonment provided for in Sec. 74-62(b), but only when the Cook County Board of Commissioners provides a resolution or ordinance in support of such designation absent abandonment.

- (1) The Cook County Board of Commissioners may only provide such a resolution or ordinance in support of class 8a designation absent abandonment when:
 - a. applicant provides objective and credible evidence including, but not limited to, an economic impact study that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Cook County Board of Commissioners that the ongoing commercial enterprise is not economically viable and as such it will cease operations within sixty-days of the submission of an eligibility application for class 8a designation to the Cook County Assessor, and thereafter the property will become vacant and unused for an extended period of time of at least twenty-four months; and
 - c. applicant provides objective and credible evidence including, but not limited to, an economic impact study that demonstrates to the satisfaction of the Cook County Board of Commissioners that designation as a class 8a property will allow the commercial enterprise to be economically viable and thereby continue its operations so that the commercial enterprise can continue to occupy and fully utilize the real estate for an extended period of time.
- (2) Such a resolution or ordinance must contain:
 - a. a finding that the Cook County Board of Commissioners has determined that class 8a designation of the property is necessary for the ongoing commercial enterprise to continue its operations and that without such designation the commercial enterprise would not be economically viable causing the property to become vacant and unused; and
 - b. a statement by the Cook County Board of Commissioners that it supports and consents to the designation of the property as a class 8a property absent an abandonment requirement; and
 - b. a statement by the Cook County Board of Commissioners that it supports and consents to the application made to the Cook County Assessor requesting designation as a class 8a property absent an abandonment requirement.
- (3) When the real estate is located in an incorporated area of the county, and designation as a class 8a property is sought using the provisions of this section, the municipality in which the real estate is located must provide to the Cook County Assessor a resolution or ordinance that contains the following:

- a. a finding by the municipality that it has determined that class 8a designation of the property is necessary for the ongoing commercial enterprise to continue its operations and that without such designation the commercial enterprise would not be economically viable causing the property to become vacant and unused; and
 - b. a statement by the municipality that it supports and consents to the action by the Cook County Board of Commissioners to support designation of the property as a class 8a property.
 - c. a statement by the municipality that it supports and consents to the class 8a application to the Cook County Assessor.
- (4) Real estate receiving a class 8a designation pursuant to the provisions of this section shall be assessed at the lowest percentage of market value provided for in Section 74-64 (11), however the term of the incentive will be limited to five years only and such class 8a designation shall not be renewed.
- (5) In order for real estate to qualify for a class 8a designation an eligibility application must be made to the Cook County Assessor.
- (6) Upon receipt of a completed eligibility application and all required municipal and county ordinances and resolutions, including those referenced in this section, the property will qualify for the class 8a designation provided the Cook County Assessor determines that the real estate which is the subject of the application for a class 8a designation would qualify for designation as a class 8 property but for the inability to comply with the definition of abandonment pursuant to Sec.74-62(b). If the Cook County Assessor makes such a determination the property shall be classified as a class 8a property pursuant to this section.
- (7) The Cook County Assessor may adopt rules consistent with this section to determine eligibility for the benefits provided under class 8a.
- (8) Upon receipt of an eligibility application for a class 8a designation, the Cook County Assessor shall forward such application and any supporting documentation provided with such application to the Cook County Board of Commissioners or its designee for consideration as to whether the County Board will provide a resolution or ordinance in support of a class 8a designation absent abandonment.
- (9) Real estate receiving a class 8a designation pursuant to the provisions of this section shall not be eligible for a class 8a designation for any year prior to the assessment year for which an application for the designation is made to the Cook County Assessor.
- (10) The Cook County Board of Commissioners or its designee may adopt rules consistent with this section that may be needed to ensure proper review of information, data and documents submitted in support of a request to the County Board for a resolution or ordinance in support of a class 8a designation as provided for in this section.

- (11) Applicants for a class 8a designation of property can only make such an application for the following assessment years 2008, 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012, 2013 and the Cook County Assessor shall not designate any real estate as class 8a property for assessment year 2018 or thereafter.
